

EOL Announcement

End Of Life Notification for PowerDsine's Power over Ethernet PDPS800 48V splitter.

March 22th, 2005

PowerDsine is announcing that it will discontinue the manufacturing of its PDPS800, 48V splitter. Last time orders for this product will be accepted up until June 31, 2005, with the last date of shipment being September 30, 2005.

Reasons for Discontinuation

The product was designed to support pre standard terminals that could not be powered by IEEE802.3af compliant PSE such as a Midspan or PoE switch.

Today terminals are IEEE802.3af compliant and there is no need for the splitter.

The notice does not affect other PowerDsine Splitters/Dongles products.
